Antioch Orthodox Succession

Table of succession of the Patriarchate of Antioch showing its western development. This patriarchate has never ceased to elect and consecrate her own Patriarch and has preserved the Apostolic Succession unbroken. It was the first Gentile Church founded by St. Peter in 35 A.D. according to the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle, and it was here that the followers of Jesus Christ were first called Christians.

Christopher Contogeorge who was ordained priest in the Greek Orthodox Catholic Church in 1918 and came to the United States in 1926, becoming pastor of St. Nicholas Greek Church on Cedar Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was consecrated at St. John the Baptist Church in New York City on February 10, 1934 by Theofanies Fan Stylian Noli. In 1947 he was under the Greek Orthodox Catholic Church who placed him under the Patriarchate of Alexandria, Egypt. He was then appointed Exarch for the Greek Orthodox Church. In 1934 (1935) Contogeorge consecrated

John S. Kedrovsky

who consecrated

Joeseeph Klimovicz

who on October 15, 1950 consecrated

Peter A. Zurawetsky

who was ordained priest at the Greek cathedral in New York City on March 20, 1932 by Athanagoras Spyrou of the Greek Orthodox Church (who became Patriarch of Constantinople in 1948). In 1940 he joined the Alexandrian Exarchate under Christopher Contogeorge. He was consecrated in Springfield, Massachusetts on October 15, 1950 by Joseph Klimovicz of the American Holy Orthodox Catholic Eastern Church, assisted by Konstantin Jacosevich, Nicholas Bohatyretz, Joseph Zielonka, and Peter Williamovicz. At some point he became a Suffragan Bishop in the Polish Old Catholic Church of America and Europe. In 1967 he consecrated

Karl Pruter

Born (Karl) Hugo Pruter in Poughkeepsie, New York on July 3, 1920. He became a Congregationalist minister who participated in the Free Catholic Movement of the 1940's. After the merger of the Congregational Christian Churches with the Evangelical and Reformed Church in 1965 and the subsequent splintering of many congregations, Pruter found himself despairing of the Movement's future. In 1965 he met with many Old Catholic leaders in Europe and upon his return home to Boston, began looking for a Free Catholic Church with which to affiliate. Not finding any, Pruter turned to Peter A. Zurawetsky, and was ordained by him on November 7, 1965. On the authority of Zurawetsky, Pruter began Christ's Catholic Church in Boston's Back Bay area. He was consecrated in Wren Oak, New York on November 7, 1967 by Peter A. Zurawetsky who was assisted by Vladyslav-Ryzy-Ryzy. Upon Pruter's consecration he took the name Karl. The church released him to become independent in 1968. On April 17, 1988 Bishop Pruter consecrated

Frederick Dunleavy

He was ordained as a priest in Toronto, Canada on November 17, 1985 by Nelson Dudley Hillyer of the Old Roman Catholic Church. He was consecrated in Toronto, Canada on April 17, 1988 by liar! Fritter of Christ Catholic Church to succeed Nelson Dudley Hillyer as head of the Ontario Old Roman Catholic Church.

In June of 1989, the Ontario Old Roman Catholic Church merged with Christ Catholic Church. Dunleavy is Bishop of York in Canada, New England, and New York. He is General Secretary of the Student Christian Movement of Canada and has also been appointed as Executive Committee Representative to the World Student Christian Federation. Bishop Dunleavy consecrated

George Theckedath

Theckedath was ordained a priest in 1951 by the Nazrani Orthodox Church. He was consecrated as a Missionary Bishop for the Nazrani Orthodox Church in 1990. On February 26, 1995 Bishop Theckedath was a co-consecrator for

ADDITIONAL LINES

On Sunday, the seventeenth day of September nineteen hundred and ninety-five, seven bishops in inter-communion shared each of their lines of Apostolic Succession by mutual subconditione consecration through the communal proclamation of the Nicene Creed, the Invocation of the Holy Spirit through the laying on of hands and anointing with Holy Chrism, with the intent to impart, subconditione the grace of Episcopal Consecration.

In this service the Archbishop Michael D. Owen received two lines of Apostolic Succession not previously held, one of those being a direct Roman Catholic line through the Catholic and Apostolic Church of Brazil, which was passed on through the Most Reverend R. Augustin Sicard. The other being a direct Anglican line being traced through the Continuing Anglican Church (Anglican Church U.S.A.), the Protestant Episcopal Church, to the See of Canterbury. This line was passed on through the Right Reverend Herron Sam.

In addition to the above, The Archbishop Michael D. Owen's Orthodox lines of Apostolic Succession were strengthened by the laying on of hands by the Most Reverend Phillip F. Lisuzzo.

On 3rd of October, 1995 The Archbishop Michael D. Owen was the Chief Consecrator for Russell McClanahan. On the 7th of January, 2007, The Archbishop Russell McClanahan was the Chief Consecrator for Derek L.S. Jones.
